Gale blows Rhinos away

RUGBY LEAGUE

LEEDS 22
CASTLEFORD 29

TWO outstanding tries and a phenomenal display from Luke Gale inflicted a third straight defeat on Leeds Rhinos. Castleford Tigers burst into an early lead but the home team hit back before half-time. Just after the break Matt Cook charged 50 metres and set up Gale to score. Gale then turned provider, exchanging a blistering one-two with Ben Roberts. Gale got one back

CUMANI

TRAINER described Sheikh Al Maktoum's stable as a 'crazy' place. Postponed by the death of George VI & VII, the course for the Prix Foy was the highest profile switched to Roger Varian.

The decision ends a near 20-year association between Cumani (below) and Sheikh Obaid. The highlight of the partnership was the 1998 Derby win by High Rise.

Twenty-three of the switched horses have run this season, including Oaks third Lady of Dubai, but they also include a clutch of expensive unraced two-year-olds — among them UAE Prince, a son of Sea The Stars costing €250,000 change of ownership. Cumani was sacked by Sheikh Obaid in 1997 with Andrea Atzeri. Cumani called up the Italian to train the retained rider Adam Kirby on Postponed before the King George.

NEWBURY will stage the Sir Peter O'Sullivan Memorial Handicap Chase at the Hennessy meeting on November 28. The track was where the great hunter bowed out of racing at Sunningdale in 1977.
