

Course Tactical Medicine LE

Duration 2 days - 16hours

Level It is recommended the end-user TECC has already been taken.

Objective The TMLE course has as its objectives to learn, understand and apply more in depth the tactical medical protocols and techniques. This in the context of law enforcement services.

---

Content The course is based on the TCCC-guidelines and adjusted to law-enforcement domestic procedures.

- General overview of the MARCH protocol mixed with technique training (variety of wound-simulators)
- Updates on techniques from newest guidelines
- Individual, team and joint workingmethodes and fitting of equipment
- Learn and understand the purpose of equipment
- Principles of Care Under Fire (Urban)
- Principles of Tactical Field Care (Urban)
- Principles of Tactical Evacuation Care (Urban)
- Extraction techniques
- Upscaling of parameters to increase ready knowledge
- Realistic scenario's based on daily theatre

1-on-5 ratio instructor-participant
Theoretical 30 / Pratical 70

---

Nutrition Meals and drinks are provided by the facility.

Equipment Consumables and other training resources are provided by the facility. Your own daily working uniform and personal equipment is recommended. Artificial blood is being used during and might cause stains on clothing.

Location ITF - Toekomstlaan 29 - Genk (BE)