TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Our general terms and conditions of sales apply to all our agreements, quotations and offers. Please find a copy at www.frankly.amsterdam/salesconditions or at the Chambers of Commerce Amsterdam number 34393141. The terms and conditions used by the other party shall be explicitly excluded.

Every product made from a natural material is unique. Therefore a small difference in size or color may occur. We strongly advise not to expose fabrics of our indoor products to direct sunlight.

Frankly Amsterdam is owner of the goods until they have been completely paid.

PRICES

Prices to public are issued in euros, including VAT.

SHIPPING

Goods travel at buyer's risk and danger: possible damages must be reported at delivery immediately. For transportation of our rugs we collaborate closely with shipping agencies specialised in high-end transportation. The rugs are shipped in rolls that have to be transported laying down, and can not be stacked underneath other cargo under any circumstance.

Because of this precise method of transportation, damages in transport rarely occurs. Despite this, we advise you to check the roll upon receipt for any damages. Please make sure to confirm that the packaging and the roll are both still in tact.

Any unexpected damages discovered upon arrival must be noted on the loading bill. Alongside this, Frankly Amsterdam wishes to receive notice of the damages, including pictures of the damaged packaging. After the client signs for completed delivery, there is no possibility to claim transport damages.

SHIPPING COSTS

- Prices of the curtain fabrics and upholstery fabrics are including shipping costs.

  Prices of bedlinen, bed spreads and throws are excluding shipping costs. Please see the overview on the next page.
- All orders under  $\le$ 350,- (purchase price excluding VAT) are subject to a surcharge. The freight/administration surcharge is  $\le$ 29,-

DELIVERY

The delivery date stated on the order confirmation is approximate and free of obligation. This shall not be considered to be a strict deadline unless a certain delivery date is explicitly guaranteed by Frankly Amsterdam.

SHIPPING COSTS BEDLINEN, BED SPREADS AND THROWS

for high quantity orders are on request.

This fabric's weight gives it a luxurious, elegant appearance and ensures it hangs beautifully. Due to its substantial weight and natural composition, the fabric may stretch or settle over time. To maintain a polished look, we recommend letting the fabric lightly touch the floor or adding extra length for a dramatic pooling effect.

MATERIAL GUIDE

COTTON (CO)

Cotton is a natural fiber made from the cotton plant. This material is known for being soft, breathable and absorbent. Cotton has good abrasion resistance and is biodegradable if not dyed or naturally dyed.

LINEN (LI)

Linen is a natural fiber made from the stem of the flax plant. Besides being very sustainable and biodegradable, this material is one of the strongest natural fibers and exhibits great abrasion resistance. Linen is also known for being hypoallergenic, non-electrifying, and renowned for its excellent colorfastness when exposed to sunlight.

WOOL (WO)

Wool is a natural animal fiber obtained from sheep and goats, which need to be sheared for their own well-being. Additionally, besides being 100% biodegradable, this material is highly resilient and elastic, very strong, and possesses excellent insulating and great anti-bacterial properties. In addition, this fiber is also naturally water repellent and has colorfast properties.

VISCOSE (CV or VI) / MODAL (MD)

Viscose, a cellulose fiber, includes Modal as one of its variations. This semi-synthetic fiber is derived from natural sources of regenerated cellulose, predominantly wood. Renowned for its exceptional absorption properties, viscose is easily dyed, and blends of this material are widely employed. Moreover, it offers a soft and luxurious touch and feel.

POLYESTER (PL, POL or PES)

PES is an acronym (shortened word) for Polyester.

Polyester is a type of artificial fiber used in textiles. Since polyester does not wrinkle structurally and is flexible, it is aimed to reduce the wrinkling rate of natural fabrics and to provide flexibility by mixing with natural fabrics. Mostly with cotton fiber can be used with wool, acrylic, silk, viscose, and linen fiber.

POLYESTER (PET)

Polyethylene terephthalate is Polyester and lends itself well to recycling. The Polyester fibres are used in fashion apparel often blended with cotton. In the context of textile applications, PET is referred to by its common name, polyester.

NYLON / POLYAMIDE (PA)

Nylon is recognized for its strength, yet it maintains a lightweight feel. Fabrics crafted from this material resist wrinkles and are not prone to humidity absorption. Renowned for its colorfastness and longevity, nylon is also resistant to bacteria and mold, and it's effortlessly easy to clean.

ACRYL (PAN) / POLYACRYL (PC)

Acrylic is a synthetic substitute for wool with the same touch and feel, but it is more colorfast and better resistant to prolonged exposure to sunlight. It effectively insulates heat and is lightweight. Additionally, it is easily washable and resistant to bacteria and mold.
