ON THE PHONE

Trrrrrrrrrrrring

- Hello?
- It's George here.
Is Mark at home?
- Just a minute, I'll check for you.

(after a few moments)

Mark isn't at home.

Can he call you back when he gets home?

- Yes, that would be fine.
My phone number is five, six, eight, four, three, one, two.
- Okay, I will leave a message for him.
- Thank you.
- Bye.

(a few minutes later)

Trrrrrrrrrrrring

- Hello?
- It's Mark here.
- Hi, Mark. Do you know when we are playing hockey?
- Yes, at nine a.m. tomorrow.
- Oh, no. So early! That's not good.
- No, I do not think so either. But we can't do anything to change it.
- Shall we meet at half past eight near the church?
- Yes, that sounds fine.
- Can you call David?
- Why can't you call him?
- I called his house already but nobody answered.
Can you try it for me?
- Yes I can, but why don't you call him again?
- I have to leave now.
- Okay, I'll call David to ask if he wants to meet at the church too.
- Perfect.
- I'll give you a ring this evening.
- Why?
- To tell you if I reached David.
- Oh, that's right.
- Bye
- See you.
